

The Wisdom Well 2017

Sydney / Brisbane

"Knowing yourself is the beginning of all wisdom."

Aristotle (384-322 BC)

The Wisdom Well is a unique program that supports you in connecting to and strengthening your innate inner wisdom. In today's fast paced world, leaders need to reconnect to their deeper wisdom in support of their decision-making, leadership and wellbeing.

At Evolutionary Intelligence we understand that you are a leader who values, embodies and promotes self awareness, deeper engagement and a purpose-driven culture in your business. This can be a difficult path to navigate as you create a new paradigm within your own organisation. As such, you find value in time and space to gather with other like-minded leaders to share your challenges and successes and continue your own personal growth.

The Wisdom Well Circles are a modern-day response to needs of today's leaders. Based on wisdom of the ancients and integrated with the knowledge found in today's scientific discoveries.

Having worked with hundreds of leaders from a wide variety of organisations and industries, we recognise that leaders of today are looking for more support in their quest for a more connected, conscious form of leadership. The Wisdom Well has been created for exactly that purpose.

For thousands of years, leaders have gathered in circles to discuss and reflect on the issues, challenges and celebrations experienced by their people and communities. Creative solutions were found, relationships were deepened by trust, collaboration, personal growth and a space where exploration of ideas was encouraged.

These circles provided a place for wisdom and knowledge to intertwine, as challenges and celebrations are viewed from both a higher perspective and in the detail.

The Wisdom Well Circle is a place for leaders to gather, reflect on and share their journeys. It is for those who recognise they have a profound impact not only on their business, family or community, but the world at large.

INTENTION

The Wisdom Well Circles are facilitated small groups (max 12 per group) that support deep sharing and learning.

Each circle will be unique, as it will be a reflection of the collective energy, ideas and spirit of the group.

The intention of the Circle is to facilitate a deep and embodied understanding and practice of the 5 Keys to Evolutionary Intelligence, which are:

- Awareness
This is the cornerstone of great leadership. What are the beliefs, habits and stories that we hold? Get grounded and present, and notice how this supports mental clarity and productivity.
- Self Regulation
Recognise and value feelings as information, and choose responses with consciousness and self responsibility.
- Connection
Listen and communicate with an open heart to develop relationships of trust and collaboration.
- Purpose
Live and work with ease, flow and meaning in order to have a conscious impact on the world within and around us.
- Integration
When we integrate all four of the above keys, we activate our Evolutionary Intelligence.
